Dear Mr. Carr,

We will all be glad to see you. We all heard of the outrage committed on Johnnie Thayer it might not be so serious as made to appear in the press. Mr. Smith told me the other day that he met a friend down town who was acquainted with the Whites intimately who gave it as his opinion that Mr. White - was insane - had a brother in the Asylum - & was as jealous of a half dozen other persons as of Johnnie.

If I knew Ned's boarding house I would visit him for I know he must feel terribly agitated. The last time I saw him he was rejoicing over Johnnie's steady manly development like an old fond father over some reformed son -

As for the stranded sapling condition of political geology I care only for the further work expended upon it by friends. The glaciers are not affected thereby neither am I nor Cassiope.

The first meeting I had with Mr Moore was at the lecture the other night. He seemed immeasurably astonished to find me in so antisequestered a condition, but in the meanwhile he is more changed than I. For he seems semi-crazy on literature as Mr M is wholly doubly so on paint.

I will show your letter to Mr Smith when he comes in. Who will doubtless be able to decipher the meaning of the heads & tails of your bodyless sentences.

I'm sorry most of all for the destruction of the "Teacher", thus cutting off the only adequate outlet for your own thoughts—but hang it. Let them decapitate

A hang - Many cannot hang Caricature

Even the Caricature
